

WENCOR ANNOUNCES EXCLUSIVE PARTNERSHIP WITH REXNORD AEROSPACE

PEACHTREE CITY, GA (January 6, 2020) – Wencor and Rexnord Aerospace recently announced the extension of their exclusive global agreement; Wencor will continue to distribute Rexnord Aerospace seals and bearings to the commercial aviation aftermarket through April of 2024.

“Rexnord has enjoyed a strategic partnership with Wencor for over a decade which has proven to be value-added in servicing the growing needs of the aerospace aftermarket. We are pleased to continue our joint efforts in supporting our mutual customers with the highest quality of engineered solutions with improved service and availability,” said Rexnord Aerospace Vice President and General Manager Jamie Quilter.

“Wencor is excited to continue our partnership with Rexnord. This extension allows us to enhance our high level of service for our mutual customers as we grow the aftermarket on Rexnord’s behalf,” said Wencor Chief Executive Officer Chris Curtis.

Wencor and Rexnord have worked closely together for over twelve years to ensure the highest quality products are available to meet performance and availability expectations.
